SHE Leads High Conference

SHE Leads High Conference is aimed at high school girls from Years 10 to 12 with a focus on creating stronger communities through the leadership of women and girls. SHE Leads High Conference provides a fantastic opportunity for high schools across the state to bring their female students to full day conference where they will hear from young inspirational women speaking about their own experiences on a global, community and personal platform.

The 2018 SHE Leads High Conference will be held on Friday 1st June 2018 at Bonython Hall University of Adelaide and will have a STEM focus. The program is currently being developed and will have a range of keynote and plenary presentations, range of breakout sessions throughout the University and a wide range of female speakers who will highlight the leadership and career opportunities with a STEM focus.

2018 will be the 4th SHE Leads High Conference and has attracted almost 200 young women to the conference over the past three years. YWCA Adelaide's SHE Leads High Conference is South Australia's premier leadership conference for young women, designed to inspire pathways for future success, and provides participants with a safe and empowering space to develop confidence and leadership skills, and connect with other young women from government and independent schools from across South Australia.

Why support YWCA Adelaide?

YWCA Adelaide is a community service organisation which has been transforming the lives of young women and girls for more than 135 years. Our purpose is to build strong and equitable communities through the development of women's leadership.

We believe that supporting the leadership development of young women is not only the right thing to do, but also the smart thing to do. We also believe that leadership occurs in all areas of life - at home, at school, at work, and across the community.

The SHE Leads High Program forms part of the YWCA leadership pathways framework, a comprehensive suite of programs designed to support young women in achieving their leadership potential.

A significant part of the SHE Leads High Program is the concept of reciprocal engagement; providing opportunities for younger women to participate in our programs and services, and providing opportunities for more experienced young women to contribute to our programs through mentoring, coaching, educating and leading.
